Lesson 2 Quiz
(Ten Minutes)

Contemplate as you do the quiz:

- Who calls you?
- What grabs your attention?
- To whom are you attracted?
- About whom do you care?
- For what are you striving?

the LORD knows
But the way of the u····· shall perish.

Section 2 Free Response Questions

1. In Genesis 1:27, it says that "God created man in his own image." What is God's image? Are we like God? Howso?
2. a. Do you put junk food into your body or eat trashy food that is bad for you?
b. Do you allow your brain to believe falsehood or read or hear or see trashy or vain or foolish things?
c. Do you allow your spirit to touch evil or engage in ugly, profane, or debased activities?
d. How are the foregoing three questions different?
e. How do you see yourself with respect to the Holy Spirit, your spirit, your mind, and your body?

Are these functioning as one? Do you have "integrity?" Are you "integrated?" Is your spirit integrated with the Holy Spirit?

Or, rather, are you a little messed up, dissipated, "dis-integrated?"

What are you going to do about it? How about letting your spirit and mind be affected and convicted by the Word of God. Let God call you. Would you let His Spirit call you, move you, change you?
3. Psalm 1 says, eternal is the man whose delight is in the Word of the Lord

(and, conversely, perishing is the man who walks in the counsel of the ungodly).

(continues ...)

Do you delight in the Word of the Lord? The world certainly does not. Whom do you follow, the world or God?

4. a. On each of the six days, God created what?
- i. _____
- ii. _____
- iii. _____
- iv. _____
- v. _____
- vi. _____

- b. What do the first three days have in common?
- c. What do the second three days have in common?
- d. What is the pattern? Hint: Genesis 1:2 “without form” (תהו taho) “and void” (בהו baho). We talked about this. What was it?

5. What is the meaning of the “waters” in Genesis 1:1-2?

6. What is the meaning of the “firmament” in Genesis 1:6ff?

7. God blessed and sanctified the seventh day because on that day he rested from his creation work.

Wait a minute, God “rested?” You mean the Almighty Creator of the Universe and King of the Universe got “tired?”

8. In Genesis 2 begins a retelling of the creation story in a different way. Exactly in what verse does this retelling begin?

- a. Why retelling?
- b. Why a different way?
- c. How different? How similar?
- d. What do we learn from this Genesis 2 retelling that was not already in Genesis 1?

9. a. God says “be fruitful and multiply” more than once. How many times? To whom does he say it?

- b. Other than the obvious, what does God mean by “be fruitful and multiply?” (It is obviously neither about arithmetic, nor a hedonistic bidding.) What is the deeper meaning that the Lord wants us to get?

- c. Consider “It is not good that man should be alone; I will make him a helper comparable to him.” (What verse is that?) How does this verse relate to this question?

- d. What does it mean “a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and they shall become one flesh?” (What verse is that?) What is the meaning of “a man and a woman shall be joined and become one flesh?”

10. What is this “Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil?” Is it good or bad? Why? Why would knowledge be bad? Why would God put a temptation there if he did not want man to eat from it? Was God tempting the man or what?

Extra Credit:

11. Here is a striking image in the holy story of creation. Meditate on it, and praise God for it, every time you pray.

In Genesis 2:7 says God formed, the ... of the dust of the, and breathed into his the breath of

However, ..., the woman, is created differently.

..., a “type” (Shׁל, τῶπος) of the C....., the Br... of, was not formed of dust but came from the opened of

Now, compare:

The Church, a heavenly Body, is born from the opened of the Second, the New ... (נִרְאָה), the ... of Oh snap!
